

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. No. I.

An Account of the Real and Personal Property of Harvard College made by the Subscriber.—The Property is estimated at the value in Money—the Income at the present Rents, without deduction for repairs.

EBENEZER FRANCIS, Treas. Harv. Col.

Boston, August 31, 1828.

1st. A tract of land in Cambridge, containing about 15 acres, bounded southerly by the road leading to West Boston Bridge, westerly by the Common, northerly by the road leading to Charlestown Neck and the Concord Turnpike, easterly by land of persons unknown. On said land are the following edifices :—

1. Massachusetts Hall, a brick building of three stories and an attic story, 98 feet by 40 feet, occupied by Students.

2. Harvard Hall, a brick building of two stories, 110 feet by 42 feet ; the east room of the first story occupied for the exhibition of Minerals, Fossils, &c. &c. ; the west room, for a Philosophical Apparatus and Lecture room ; the second story, for the Library.

3. Hollis Hall, a brick building of four stories, 103 feet by 43, occupied by Students.

4. Stoughton Hall, a brick building of four stories, 103 feet by 43, occupied by Students.

5. Holworthy Hall, a brick building of four stories, 138 feet by 34, occupied by Students.

6. Holden Chapel, a brick building of one story, 50 feet by 34 and a half ; the lower part used for Chemical Experiments, the upper part for an Anatomical Museum and Lecture room.

7. University Hall, a stone building, 140 feet by 50, occupied by Kitchens, Store-rooms, Bathing-rooms, Commons hall, Chapel, Recitation rooms, and rooms for Committees of the Overseers, &c. &c.

8. The President's House, a wooden building of two stories and an attic, with stable, out-buildings, &c.

The Meeting House is on land belonging to the Corporation, and a part of the expense of erecting the building was paid by the College.

The Medical College, situate in Mason Street, Boston, with the Library therein.

The foregoing Real Estates with the land under and appurtenant to the same, have never been brought into the College Books of Accounts, nor the Library, Philosophical Apparatus, Minerals, Fossils, Anatomical Museum, Kitchen utensils, Furniture, Pictures, Statuary, &c. &c.

AUDITORS' REPORT.

At a Meeting of the Corporation of Harvard College, held on the day of December, 1828, the following Report was read and accepted.

To the President and Fellows of Harvard College.

THE Standing Committee, appointed on the 15th of May last to examine the Books and Accounts of the present Treasurer of the College, have examined the same from Feb. 1, 1827, when he entered on the duties of his office, to August 31, 1828, the close of the last College year, and submit the following Report :—

The Committee have examined the account of the Stock, beginning on the first page of the Journal, and containing a statement of all the bonds, notes, mortgages, stocks, and other property, which originally came to the hands of the Treasurer, to be accounted for according to his receipt therefor given to a Committee of this Board ; and all subsequent entries in the Journal, showing what he has received since that time. They have also called for all those bonds, notes, mortgages, certificates, and other evidences of property, and have seen that every one is now in the possession of the Treasurer, or is fully accounted for in his books. They have also noticed all payments, both of principal and interest, indorsed on any one of the said bonds or notes, and seen that the amount so indorsed has been duly credited to the College. The Committee have also carefully examined all notes, bonds, mortgages, and other securities for money invested by the present Treasurer, and take great pleasure in saying, that all his investments are, in their opinion, very judiciously made and amply secured.

They have in like manner examined all the entries of the Treasurer for moneys expended or in any way charged to the College, and have found them well vouched and supported. Such of those charges as are not supported by counter entries in the books have been proved by regular vouchers and receipts, with the exception of a very few petty charges and expenses, which from their nature do not admit of that kind of evidence.

The Committee have also seen that all the entries in the Journal are correctly transferred to the Leger, and that the accounts are rightly cast and the balances carried forward to new accounts. And they have certified the above facts in the original Journal of the Treasurer.

Some apparent diminution of the College Stock is occasioned by settling many old outstanding accounts, and reducing them from their nominal to their real value ; as, for example, the account of the Printing Office, that of Books, and that of the Sloop Harvard. Much of the Bank Stock, and unproductive real estate of the College has been sold, and the proceeds invested in notes, amply secured by mortgages, and bearing interest, with a single exception, at the rate of six per cent. per annum.

The Committee cannot close this part of their report, without expressing their deep sense of the great obligation which the College is under to the Treasurer for the very accurate and regular manner in which the accounts have been kept, and for the singular care, diligence, and skill, displayed in the disposal and investment of the funds, and in conducting all the financial concerns of the College.

The Committee have examined, at the Treasurer's request, the terms of sundry ancient bequests and donations to the College, from which it appears that several of them might be placed under more appropriate heads in the Treasurer's books, than has heretofore been done.

The legacy of Thomas Hutchinson in 1739, of £70, was given to the Professor of Divinity for 15 years, and after that time to the general purposes of the College. It has hitherto remained among the appropriations for Professors. It is the opinion of your Committee that it ought to be transferred to the account of College Stock.

John Nugate's annuity has been heretofore appropriated to Indigent Scholars. It appears from the original deed, that it is given for the general purposes of the College. The income of this fund ought to be carried to general account.

Grants have for many years been made for the purposes of the Pennoyer fund to its full amount, and paid out of the general funds of the College, while that fund itself has been left to accumulate in the hands of the Treasurer and of the Agent in England. It seems to the Committee that the amount thus paid ought to be returned to the College, and that to this end the accumulated Pennoyer fund ought to be transferred also to the credit of the Stock account.

The legacies of Thomas Hollis and Samuel Shapleigh, being both for the Library, without any limitation or restriction, might be conveniently carried to one account, to be styled the Library Fund.

The account of Exhibitions contains the donations of many individuals for the benefit of poor scholars. But many other donations for the same purpose are still kept under separate heads. With a view to promote order and simplicity in the Books, the Committee recommend that the following accounts, which are of the kind just mentioned, be transferred to the account of Exhibitions.

Dorchester Land.

Joanna Alford's Legacy.

Thomas Hollis's Donation.

Mary Lindall's Legacy.

Nathaniel Hollis's Legacy.

Narraganset Farm.

A balance of one hundred dollars against Dr. John C. Warren was transferred from the books of the former Treasurer. Your Committee are of opinion that this charge is an error, and they therefore recommend that Dr. Warren be credited with one hundred dollars from salaries and grants to balance that account.

The annuity from West Boston Bridge is appropriated, by act of the General Court, to the support of one or more permanent Tutors. As no such officer now exists in the College, this fund is of course left to accumulate.

The Committee recommend that application be made to the General Court for leave to apply this sum to lessen the expenses of education to all the Undergraduates, which appears to be the object for which it was originally designed.

CHARLES JACKSON, }
FRANCIS C. GRAY, } Committee.
